

GASHED HIS THROAT.

Then Aged Court-Crier Buchanan
Jumped from the House-Top.

His Wife Says Illness Had Unbalanced His Mind.

But There Are Rumors that He Had Premeditated Suicide.

Benjamin W. Buchanan, the aged court-crier in the Federal Court, who has been a court officer for half a century, committed suicide at 6.30 this morning by cutting his throat with a razor and then jumping from the roof of his residence at 105 Washington place to the pavement, about fifty feet below. He lived for fifteen minutes after he jumped, but was unable to speak.

His body was removed by an ambulance from St. Vincent's Hospital a quarter of an hour after he died.

Mr. Buchanan was seventy-three years old. He lived with his wife, who is nearly the same age, on the top floor of the building.

He had been suffering from dyspepsia for several months, and a day or so ago told his wife he thought he could never be cured.

Shortly after 6 o'clock this morning he told Mrs. Buchanan he was going to the roof to see if the fresh air would help him.

A few moments later he jumped to the pavement. His throat was cut from ear to ear. On the roof was found the razor he had used and the case from which he had taken it. There was a trail of blood from the place where he cut his throat, leading to the edge of the roof.

Mrs. Buchanan believes sickness preyed on her husband's mind until he became irascible for his actions. Friends say he thought he would soon force him to quit work, and that he believed a man who was not useful should not live.

He had made a will a short time ago, and when he left the Court-House Wednesday he shook hands with all his associates. The fact is also recalled that he wanted to borrow a revolver.

There was an air of gloom among all the officers in the Supreme Court Building this morning on account of the death of old Ben. Mr. Buchanan was called. He was a favorite of all, but more particularly of William H. Mitchell, the Court-Crier.

"The first I knew of Ben," said Mr. Mitchell, "he was a butcher's boy in Centre Market. He was a member of the Volunteer Fire Department and ran with Engine 40. In this way he became acquainted with the politicians and was appointed a Court officer about fifty years ago."

He was the officer who had charge of Lew Haker during the latter's trial for the murder of Bill Poole, and for many years had charge of bringing the prisoners from the Tombs. One year he was Acting Court-Crier in General Term.

In early life he was a doorknocker at Barnum's Museum in Ann street, and was a great favorite of old P. T. Barnum. He and I were partners together at Bryant's Minstrels for many years, and in 1873 we were jointly given a benefit. He was also a doorknocker at Castle Garden, where Jenny Lind was there.

Mr. Buchanan was married when a young man. He had one child, a daughter, who was killed early in the sixties by falling from a stoop.

He had an adopted son, William, who lives on the east side.

During the war he served in the Seventy-first Volunteer Regiment. At the time of his death he was a member of the old Volunteer Firemen's Association and of a Masonic fraternity. His body was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital a week, having moved there from 105 Charleston street.

ISAAC JCKELHEIMER DEAD.

Wall Street Lacks One of Its Greatest Financiers.

Isaac Jckelheimer, of the well-known banking firm of Jckelheimer, Jckelheimer & Co., of 20 Wall street, died suddenly yesterday from bright's disease at his residence, 19 West Forty-seventh street. The firm of which he was a member has for years held almost a monopoly in exporting vast sums of gold to Europe.

Mr. Jckelheimer was ranked among the best financiers of the country. He was born in Germany in 1832, and came to this country in 1850, and started in the jewelry business with his brother-in-law. After amassing a fortune he entered the banking business with his father-in-law, A. S. Jckelbach. He leaves a son and two daughters. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

"C. L. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

"I suffered with rheumatism for nearly two years, so severe I could not walk, was in fact bed-ridden and could not rest at night on account of pains in my head. I did not eat much, having lost my appetite, and I was reduced to a mere skeleton when my brother advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as he had taken four bottles for rheumatic trouble and had been

PERMANENTLY CURED.

My father got a bottle and he and I were cured. I continued taking it and have regained an appetite, sleep well, am not troubled with aches or pains and can now walk quite long distances. I am growing stronger every day and have worked some lately. I am gaining in flesh and weigh heavier than I have for a long time past. I highly recommend

BIT HIS NOSE ALMOST OFF.

Terrific Fight Takes Place Between Two Men in West Street.

Charles H. Benson, of Jersey City, and Thomas Miley, of New York, were at the Tombs Police Court this morning, and Miley's nose was almost bitten off.

Benson said that he met two young women in Jersey City last night and brought them to New York. On Cortlandt street he mistook $75 and a note for $100 and accused the women of taking the property. They then attacked him and he fought back.

Miley objected to seeing Benson with the women, and a fight ensued during which the women made their escape.

Policeman McGowan arrested the men as they were falling in the street, and Justice Smith discharged them both. The evidence against Miley was not enough to hold him.

DON M. DICKINSON'S ILLNESS.

Relapse After Last Week's Disorders Followed by Quinsy.

CHICAGO, April 28.—A special from Detroit to a morning paper says that Don M. Dickinson is again ill, this time much more seriously than last week, when he had an attack of tonsillitis.

For several days he was able to be at his office, but yesterday Mr. Dickinson was again compelled to take to his bed, suffering from a relapse of last week's disorders, which have now developed into quinsy.

He is attended by Dr. C. C. Jennings and a trained nurse has also been called in.

Wife-Beater Gets Six Months.

Justice Koch at Essex Market Court this morning sentenced Peter Brown, fifty-one years old, of 775 Montgomery street, to jail for six months for beating his wife Agnes Brown in a quarrel. While in his cell and often beat his wife when she has no money to give him to purchase drink.

A mother's Letter:—
"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"Last Winter I did not think my little ones would have a mother long. I suffered terribly with female troubles.

"I could keep nothing on my stomach, and got so 'poor' my friends hardly knew me. I suffered with severe headaches, dizziness, faintness, backache and the blues.

"Thanks to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am now as fat as ever, and have no female troubles.

"If you use my letter I hope it may be the means of saving some other poor mother's life as it did mine."—Mrs. Ella Van Buren, Brazil, Ind.

Poured Scalding Water Over Him.

KITTANNING, Pa., April 28.—While Dallas Peyton, a colored man of this place, was asleep last night some one entered his house, took a boiler full of hot water from the kitchen stove and poured the contents, about ten gallons, over him. He was painfully scalded and will be disabled for life. The perpetrator escaped and is unknown. Peyton can give no account for the act.

Slain by Ned Christie's Brother.

TALLEGHISH, T., April 28.—Two full-blooded heretics fought to the death about a mile from here last night. The participants are a man named Dick, and a brother of Ned Christie, who was killed recently by a fight with deputy marshals. Dick and Christie lost a leg each and before proceeding far became exhausted in a quarrel; which ended in a fight with knives. Dick was found lying by the roadside with his throat cut from ear to ear.

CAMPANIA AGAINST PARIS.

Much Interest Taken in the New Cunarder's Maiden Voyage.

The Crack Vessels Both Due at This Port To-Morrow.

It will not be known to one midnight, and probably not until to-morrow, whether or not the big Cunard line steamship Campania is the wonderful ship her builders claim.

The greatest interest is shown over the great ocean race that began last Saturday from Liverpool and Southampton between the Campania and the Paris, the two vessels which represent the most advanced type of marine architecture.

The Campania is an unknown quantity, but her wonderful run of one mile on her trial trip at the rate of 23.50 knots, or about twenty-seven miles an hour, proves that something extraordinary may be expected of her.

At the office of the Cunard line today it was said that no attempt would be made on this voyage to break the Paris' record of 5 days, 14 hours and 24 minutes from Queens-town over a course of 5,782 miles. Her machinery will necessarily be stiff, and until everything is running smoothly no attempt will be made to pass the Campania.

On the other hand, Paris will certainly be sent for all she is worth. The American line people believe that she is much faster than the Puget Bismarck, which now holds the record of 6 days, 11 hours and 44 minutes from Southampton and this port, and they think the Paris can cover the distance in about six days.

The Puget Bismarck arrived to-day from Southampton, having sailed on April 29. The voyage was made in six days and nineteen hours.

The Puget Bismarck carried a large number of passengers. In the season were 403, and in the average 447. Among the former were parties of King and Queen of Austria, newspaper men bound for the World's Fair, and the United States Legation at St. Petersburg; Consul-General E. V. House-Warrior, German Commissioner to the World's Fair; Consuls A. P. Hill and Carl Sellweger; A. Gordon Murray and J. R. George C. S. Chabot.

Four Deaths from Typhus.

Four deaths and one new case of typhus fever were reported by the Bureau of contagious Diseases this morning.

The deaths are those of Thomas Ahearn, aged thirty-four, of 432 Pearl street, who was taken to North Brother Island April 7; James Kelly, aged twenty-seven, no home, who was taken from Bellevue Hospital yesterday; Henry Schutte, aged sixty, no home, who was taken from the New York Hospital yesterday; and James White, aged forty-two, who was found in the West Sixty-ninth street station falling from an April 7.

The new case is that of John Sullivan, aged twenty-eight, of 323 Park Row. He was taken from the Chambers Street Hospital to North Brother Island.

Baby Born in Court.

Jefferson Market the Scene of a
Lusty Boy's Arrival.

About 9 o'clock this morning a comely-looking girl came into the Jefferson Market Court room and said she was very ill.

She was taken into the back room and an ambulance sent for from St. Vincent's Hospital, and at 9.30 a bounding baby boy was born.

The woman who gave the name of Mary Kelly, aged nineteen, of 282 West Twenty-sixth street, was then taken to the hospital.

Mrs. Kelly said she was married, but didn't know where her husband was.

It was suggested by Justice Voorhis that the baby should be named Jefferson Connolly Kelly, in honor of the court and as a tribute to Officer Connolly, who looked after the woman's comort.

And One New Case Has Been Reported.

Four deaths and one new case of typhus fever were reported by the Bureau of contagious Diseases this morning.

The deaths are those of Thomas Ahearn, aged thirty-four, of 432 Pearl street, who was taken to North Brother Island April 7; James Kelly, aged twenty-seven, no home, who was taken from Bellevue Hospital yesterday; Henry Schutte, aged sixty, no home, who was taken from the New York Hospital yesterday; and James White, aged forty-two, who was found in the West Sixty-ninth street station falling from an April 7.

The new case is that of John Sullivan, aged twenty-eight, of 323 Park Row. He was taken from the Chambers Street Hospital to North Brother Island.

DUKE VERAGUA HAS LEFT US.

Started with His Family and Friends for Chicago To-Day.

His Son Took Farewell Snap Shots from the Ferry-Boat.

The Duke de Veragua and his party left the Pennsylvania depot on the Columbus express at 9.15 this morning bound for Chicago.

Accompanying the Duke were his wife, the Duchess, his son and daughter, Don Cristobal Colon and the Donna del Pilar, the Marquis de Lardelle, Don Pedro Colon, Marquis de Villalobos, Carlo Aquilera, nephew of the Duchess, Senor Camillo, an attaché of the Spanish Columbian Commission, and Commander Dicks, U. S. N., his wife, a valet, governess and maid.

The party arrived at the Desbrosses Street Ferry from the Hotel Waldorf at 8.45 and five minutes later they were ferried across the river to the depot.

On the way over young Don Pedro Colon took snap shots with a camera at passing ferry-boats and the shipping along the New York shore, which presented an exceedingly attractive view, with the profusion of flags and bunting flying and festooned from the tall masts and broad yards.

The Duke looked regretfully at the departing scene, and seemed loath to leave the place which during the last few days had so longed for himself and party and extended the full measure of hospitality.

The Donna del Pilar was the most vivacious of the party. She moved through the crowd exchanging words with passengers and occasionally directed the operations of Don Pedro Colon, who was making the negatives to be developed for the Donna's collection of views of New York and the harbor.

The party boarded the private Pullman car Amelion, which was next to the engine. The train was the regular express and left at 10.15. It is due at Chicago at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

French Crisis Over.

Harmony Between Senate and Chamber on the Liquor Tax.

PARIS, April 28.—The Chamber of Deputies to-day, by a vote of 360 to 176, decided to reject the proposals of the Committee on the Budget in relation to the liquor tax and to adopt the proposals of the Senate on that subject, thus bringing the two Chambers into harmony and terminating the deadlock which led to the resignation of the late Ministry.

SUCCESSORS TO

CASPERFELD & CLEVELAND.
OUR ONLY STORE IS
144 BOWERY,

WEST SIDE OF STREET, NEAR GRAND ST. ELEVATED STATION.

We have repeatedly advertised about the vastness of our establishment and our extraordinary low prices. To show the public that we have not exaggerated,

We here quote from the New York "Herald" of Oct. 4, 1892:

"There are many attractions offered in the Big Jewelry Store of Casperfeld & Co., of No. 144 Bowery. There is a remarkably fine assortment of diamonds and other rare gems, in thoroughly artistic settings, at prices that seem ridiculously low to persons who are accustomed to uptown values. These low prices have had a singular effect on the trade in general. For it has become known that this firm is selling brilliants at prices that are phenomenally low, and the results have been that dealers are beginning to buy from them rather than from the importers. Certainly with a record like this persons who desire to find bargains in jewelry should call at this store and inspect the stock."

Diamonds bought of us can be returned, less 5 per cent., when so stipulated in the agreement.
